Paddle around Randall's Island; head to Hell Gate, Harlem River, and circumnavigate Manhattan!

FDR Four Freedoms Park, the only designby architect Louis Kahn in NYC.

U Thant Island, inhabited by nesting cormorants & black backed seagulls

Broadway Stages
Boatyard, site of NBBC's boat launch,
boat building and Ed
Shed, at 49 Ash St.

Bushwick Inlet, historic launch site for the USS Monitor.

Domino Sugar Refinery, rebuilt in 1882, once the largest in the world.

Wallabout Channel, home to a Village Community Boathouse dock and Harbor School's oyster restoration project.

Get to Know North Brooklyn Waters

Anable Basin, a quick paddle away and home to LIC Community Boathouse Low bridge! Watch your head paddling into Dutch Kills and say hi to our friends at LaGuardia Community College

Newtown Creek Wastewater Treatment Plant, the largest facility in NYC with famous digester eggs lit blue at night.

Maspeth Creek, home to kingfishers, egrets, cormorants and a great blue heron; low tides often reveal sunken cars and noxious odors

Oil Spill Remediation Site for 2nd largest spill in US history

Plank Road, shoreline access project and historic creek crossing.

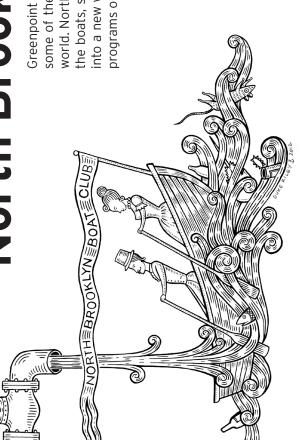

English Kills, site of a pilot aeration project to increase oxygen levels in the water, but not address the underlying problem of sewage dumped in the creek.

Special Thanks to:

Sponsors: Allocco Recycling, Box House Hotel, Broadway Stages, Build It Green NYC, City Councilperson Steve Levin, Greenpoint Community Environmental Fund, Hudson River Foundation, NY Distillery, State Assemblyman Joe Lentol and TNT Scrap

Partners: Greenpoint Waterfront Association for Parks and Planning, LaGuardia Community College, Newtown Creek Alliance, Open Space Alliance for North Brooklyn North

Greenpoint and Williamsburg are surrounded on three sides b some of the most interesting and challenging waterways in th world. North Brooklyn Boat Club is a community boathouse wit the boats, safety gear and training to get you on the water an into a new way of experiencing New York. Get involved with our programs on and off the water including:

Lighted Buoy 18

marks the East River Main Channel and southern end of the "Poorhouse Flats."

Voyage to Brooklyn Bridge Park, Governor's Island, Red Hook and beyond! Find us online: NorthBrooklynBoatClub.org Tweet us: @NorthBkBoatClub Visit our boatyard: 49 Ash St (at McGuinness Blvd)

ooat building & restoration

wildlife monitoring